

General terms and conditions of the Referral Program of 21 Consulting GmbH

1. Eligibility

1.1 Only those who have registered for the referral program and provided a valid PayPal address for payouts are eligible to participate.

2. Subject of the Referral Program

The Referrer recommends the products and services of 21 Consulting GmbH and receives a reward for each successful conclusion of a new contract based on the referral.

3. Procedure

3.1 The Referrer sends a referral link to the referred party, through which the referred party makes the purchase. The information contained in the link enables the purchase to be attributed to the referrer.

4. Entitlement to the reward

4.1 Within 31 days after successful conclusion of a contract, the reward will be approved to the Referrer. The reward is initially awarded as a credit. The credit is then paid out at the end of the month to the PayPal address provided.

4.2 A reward will only be given in the case of a final and effective contract between 21 Consulting GmbH and the referred party.

4.3 The contract in accordance with section 4.2. must be the first contract concluded by the Referred Customer with our company. The successfully referred party must be a new customer. Follow-up businesses are not eligible for awards.

4.4 Multiple compensations, e.g. through a combination of this referral program with other programs, are not allowed.

4.5 The amount of the reward is usually 20% of the gross price for the first purchase. Different rewards may apply for special offers. Only those products that can be purchased directly in our web application app.cryptotax.io and those that are provided as part of a special promotion for our Referral Program are eligible for rewards.
